Pete Coe, Brian Peters and Laura Smyth take ‘The Road to Peterloo’

The tale of one of the most notorious incidents in British history – the ‘Peterloo Massacre’ in Manchester in 1819 – told through some of the many street ballads that were printed around the time of the event. Three singers and musicians from North West England tell the story, sketching out the background with songs of the Napoleonic Wars, the Luddite uprising, and the poverty and hunger suffered by handloom weavers, cotton spinners and other workers.
